Kimberly D. Reisman serves as Executive Director of Next Step Evangelism Ministries where her focus of ministry is empowering others to take the next step of faith on their spiritual journey. Through her work with Next Step, Kim provides faith shaping ministries for the Indiana Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. She also partners with World Methodist Evangelism and is a regular speaker at retreats, seminars, workshops and revivals both nationally and internationally.

Born in Gulfport, Mississippi, Kim lived in California, Tennessee, Georgia, and Connecticut before moving to Indiana in 1993 with her husband, John and three children, Nathan, Maggie and Hannah. She has a Bachelor's Degree from Emory University, a Masters of Divinity from Yale Divinity School and is currently working on her PhD at Durham University in the United Kingdom. Kim hosts the weekly internet radio talk show, Real Faith ~ Real World and has also written several books: The Workbook on the Seven Deadly Sins, The Workbook on Virtues and Fruits of the Spirit, The Christ-Centered Woman: Finding Balance in a World of Extremes, Knowing God: Making God the Main Thing in Your Life, and many others.

In all her work, Kim seeks to serve God by awakening, strengthening and enlivening the faith commitment of individuals as well as empowering communities of faith to become visible witnesses to the love of Christ for the world. Kim lives with her family in West Lafayette, Indiana where she enjoys sports, reading, jewelry making, music and participating in the activities of her family.
